

van. Suddenly, you hear the squeal of breaks and witness what appears to be her 6 year old child hit by a slow moving passing car driven by a sixteen year old. The child now lying supine a few feet away in the busy parking lot and shows no signs of life.

- List in detail all the steps you need to do to give proper aid for this scenario.
- Include how you would: make sure the scene is safe/request help/use of resources/perform proper victim assessment (the child will have no breathing and no pulse)/all care given.
- Be very specific with any and all care given from beginning to conclusion for this event.

More details equal more points!**