I. Introduction.

My name is Abdulwahab and many of the people I know just call Abdul. I am twenty years old, and I am an honest straightforward big-hearted person. I am an international student from Kuwait, and I have been studying in America for about three years. My major is electrical engineering. I am addicted to all types of chocolate especially milk chocolate. Tasting every country's traditional food, such as Indian food like curry, American like burgers, and Italian like pasta and pizza, is one of my favorite interests. Moreover, there are some types of food that I am not allowed to eat for religious purposes. Even though I love eating, I go to the gym regularly and practice my favorite sport, which is boxing. One of my favorite hobbies is watching YouTube videos and I have learned a lot about religions, cultures, and food.

- Thesis statement: I am respectful towards my family, friends, society and rules, and religions.
