

③
Lipids: are hydrophobic NON polar
don't like water
don't dissolve

Sucrose is a Disaccharides polysaccharides - chain of lots of sugars (monomers) stuck together

monomers are building blocks

LIPIDS

sub units or building blocks either a Stere molecule glycerol joined with some number of fatty acids

Sterol derived molecules are hydrophobic