

Two films: BBC's The Tempest (1980; directed by John Gorrie) and The Stratford Shakespeare Festival The Tempest (2011; starring Christopher Plummer, directed by Des McAnuff).

(Turn in the worksheet the day after we finish with the film viewings. This counts the same as a quiz.)

1. Describe how, before seeing the film, you imagined the characters below. How, if you were a director, you would cast actors for the following characters (please be specific; no credit will be given for vague answers).

Consider such issues as gender, height, body shape, ethnicity, and speaking voice. You might take a look at the images on ArtStor, a database in the library. What instructions would you give to the costume director?
