

Intelligence Makes Change

Have you ever heard about Steve Jobs? If so, you need also to ^{be} acknowledge that he is ^{one of} the most cited name in the internet world. According to Brenda Wegmann and Miki Knezevic in their article "Steve Jobs: Another Creative Genius for the 21st Century," Steve Jobs is considered also as an innovative ^{need noun} and the founder of the most outstanding companies in the history, ^{is it} which is Apple company. The authors state that although ^{use his last name} Steve had problems in his education, he did not mind taking ^{last} long time in doing something that he ^{we} involved to. He joined a college in Oregon for six month then he ^{VF} leave it. Wegmann and Knezevic assume that by establishing 'Apple Computer

Wonderful location phrase + main idea!

This sentence is confusing.

Company' Steve and his school friends initiated their business in 1976. It ^{LBE verb} surprising that Jobs ³ fired from the company which he started. After that, ^{watch out for extra spaces.} he produced an animated film company. The authors argue that Apple Company welcomed him again. Besides he released his goods. Jobs said, " the only way to do great work is to love what you do." Personally, I think that is totally true for couple of reasons.

Agreed!
Very surprising

make sure to use appropriate reminder phrases. The authors are simply telling a story; they aren't really arguing much.

could you give the two reasons here in your thesis?

In the famous graduation speech, Jobs stated, "The only way to do great work is to love what you do. If you haven't found it yet, keep looking. Don't settle." First reason, to love what to do. For example, when someone likes to do something, he or she tends to do it in a perfect way. Their effort also being made without caring of the passed time, in order to do it completely. On the other hand, when someone is supposed to finish a task from a leader, which he or she does not like to do, they Give your own topic sentence in the first sentence of body paragraph. Use the quote as support (example reason) in your body paragraph might be bored ^{Gerund} to do it. Moreover, they try to finished it as soon as possible just to get rid of such task.

end paragraph with a sentence restating
topic sentence

Second reason, doing favorable tasks means having fun. For instance, when people choose a desirable task, they will enjoy doing it straightforwardly. Doing something preferable leads the person to think about the final result. Furthermore, it requires ^{Gerund} to consider the technique or manner that must be taken while performing. In contrast, it seems to be hard to do something uninteresting, ^{VF} it may consumes a lot of time without doing anything, or may be finished on short time with carelessness of the result. According to Wegmann and Knezevic they states in their article "Steve Jobs:

Another Creative Genius for the 21st Century" that Jobs was ^{excited about} exciting with creating something that he interested to it, even if it ^{is} consuming his time.

Write final sentence repeating
topic sentence.

Don't need to repeat the name of article.

To ^{SP} Conclude, it is good to learn from others' experiences, or following ^{=P} there advices. Therefore, Jobs had a perfect message which its main content is to look for the interesting aspects of things. The more favorable task, the most the greatest profession is.

Good start! :)

Works Cited } Do not bold

Wegmann, Brenda. And Knezevic, Miki. "Steve Jobs: Another Creative Genius for the 21st Century" 2014.

Hanging indent