

Section Three: In-class Essay

You will need to write an argumentative/persuasive essay on one (1) of the topics below. You should have time to plan, outline, draft and revise your paper in the time allowed. I will be looking for evidence of your understanding of unity, organization, support, purpose and grammar and punctuation.

- A. Should the way the university handles textbook sells and purchases be changed?
- B. Should Foundational Studies courses be eliminated or reduced?
- C. Do many college students show a greater lack of respect and civility in their classes than they should?
- D. Should the ISU parking system be changed?

When you complete the final essay, come up and staple it in the upper left corner and put it face down on my desk. Good luck and have a great break!

Class Essay

Write an argumentative/persuasive essay on one (1) of the topics below. You should have time to plan, outline, draft and revise your paper in the time allowed. I will be looking for evidence of your understanding of unity, organization, support, purpose and grammar and punctuation.

How has the university handles textbook sells and purchases be changed?

Should Social Studies courses be eliminated or reduced?

Do students show a greater lack of respect and civility in their classes than they should?