

September 23, 2014

Dear Ibrahim Alfarai,

Thank you for your interest in this course. This document reflects my assessment of your Literacy Narrative assignment and presents an updated record of points earned. Participation points are not calculated until the semester's end. Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions concerning my comments or your grade. My goal is to help you improve your writing, reading, and thinking. I want to help you be successful in this class.

Best regards,
Luke Bowman

Summary and Response Assessment

Positive Remarks:

-I can understand most of your ideas, and your essay contains some good sentences. How many times have you visited The Write Place?

Instructions for Development:

-Conciseness: In which places could your writing be more concise? To understand conciseness, please read this short article: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/572/01/>

Please find three sentences in your essay which could be more concise. Write those sentences in your journal with a more concise version underneath each one.

-Paragraphs: Do your paragraphs lack unity? Are you using paragraphs to break up ideas? Please read this short article to understand effective paragraphs: <http://writingcenter.unc.edu/handouts/paragraphs/>

Which of your paragraphs has the most problems? Rewrite that paragraph in your journal.

-Editing and Proofreading: Is it clear that your essay has been thoroughly edited and proofread? To understand the editing and proofreading process, please read this short article: <http://writingcenter.unc.edu/handouts/editing-and-proofreading/>

Please identify three mistakes in your essay. Explain and write a correction for each mistake in your journal.

Points Earned out of 100: 81