

she wanted to help me. She offered me to buy the car washer that I used to work there as a part time job to laundry the more than need money and to deflect suspicions. Thus, at that time my economic situation was perfect and my health was progressed positively. My brain told me to stop working in this business, but the greed had overwhelmed and win. I continued working with Gus and gaining more money. Over the time I discovered a plot from Gustavo that he wanted to get my method and kill me. I was a source of danger of him because of the DEA agent who is my mother in law. As anybody who would be in my situation I decided to eat Gustavo as a launch before he eat me as a dinner. It means to kill him before he killed me. I worked on that with Jessie and finally I got him. We killed him by professional way that didn't put us in a suspicion situation. GUS killed my brother in law who discovered all the game lately. That's all what I did. What I did was immoral, but always remember that I started this work with good intentions.

*still
plot
summary

My son I know that when you read this letter you will be shocked and you will send me disrespectful feelings. I know that you did not ever aspect that it will end with me like this. Walter-junior, I want you to be proud of me. My son always think of the good things in me and don't remember the bad things that I did. I know that you know me and why I did that bad things. Always be satisfied of your situation because greed is what push you to do unpredictable things. My lovely little daughter, sorry for not being a perfect father to you. Always remember that what I do is because I love you and your brother. To be honest, your born time was at the same time of my rush hour. The work was to provide you with such a great future. The last letter is for my brother in law and his wife, I am very sorry about what happened. Hank was always a good man who work hardly to save people and his country. The DEA lose one of the best agents that they could ever have, and if I know that it will end with hank's death I swear that I will not start it.

*This
seems more related to a change in the way
we view
characters
like this,
which is necessary
for this essay.