Have you ever find a person vocation and job like your dream job and your vocation? Not only that, also your cousin and your life experience adviser? To begin with, I'm going to interview my cousin. His first name is Hashim, and his last name is Alshurafa. Hashim is great hand ball, track and field player, and a wonderful surgeon. He is one of my models because I see him kind of super hero. Furthermore, hashim knew how to manage his time well, so he made a balance of all his vocation in successes way. Moreover he giving me a lot of advice when I need, also my vocation as his vocation, so I'm trying to follow his steps and his rule. Also I like his job and vocation because I'm an athletic like him, but my sport areas in Track and field is a race walking, and I have my achievement in that's area such as, I'm the fastest person in K.S.A in race walking, so the Saudi race walk record under my name, and I got a bronze medal In Arabian championship, and I did the limit to enroll in world cup of race walking. Moreover, because I have a renal transplantation, I would love to be a nephrology doctor as Hashim. In addition, all his steps of education very doctors should follow it. No doctor can be consultant before he /she do those step. My plan to do as what Hasim did or any doctor are the following.

5) When Hashim (or anyone else) is talking, use quotation marks around what they said " " " " " "
