

Lesson 2

Summary

On 1/20/08, a bank robbery suspect was stopped two blocks from the First National Bank, New York, New York, driving a green pickup truck when Officer Jackson observed red dye coming out of the truck windows. The officer had heard a radio report that the First National Bank had been robbed five minutes earlier. Officer Jackson stopped the vehicle, and after the suspect exited the vehicle, he was identified as Ricky Moon, a white male, 22 years of age; height, 6'; weight, 192; wearing blue jeans and a ski cap. Moon was transported back to the bank, where witnesses Beamer and Katz identified Moon as the bank robber who held up the First National Bank on 1/20/08 at approximately 1:30 p.m. Moon was subsequently arrested and advised of his Miranda rights by Officer Jackson. Moon was transported to the police station for interrogation.
