

What are the four components of the cycle of negativity that can lead to low self-esteem?

8. What example was given to illustrate that our self-esteem can fluctuate at different stages in our life as well as in different situations?
9. What does research tell us about the relationship between physical exercise and self-esteem?