

Grunden-Martin v. Fairmount

On April 20, Grunden-Martin wrote to Fairmount, in part: "Please advise us the lowest price you can make us on our order for ten carloads of Mason green jars...state terms and cash discount." On April 23, Fairmount replied by letter: "Replying to your favor of April 20, we quote you Mason fruit jars....pints $4.50, quarts $5.00, half-gallons $6.50, per gross, for immediate acceptance." On April 24, Grunden-Martin sent a telegram ordering ten carloads of quarts. On that same day Fairmount responded by telegram, "Impossible to book your order. Output all sold." Grunden-Martin claims that there is a contract. Is there?
