

Structure 2

1. Exposition: Tell us what you were doing when the event happened, and how you got there. — was driving
2. Inciting Incident: Show us how the conflict or problem started.
3. Rising Action: Show how the crisis developed or worsened.
4. Climax: Describe the most critical moment of the event.
5. Falling Action: Narrate what happened after the climax.
6. Resolution/Reflection: Tell us how the event ended, and reflect on its autobiographical significance. What impact has this event had on you?

9.21 +

Khalifa
Al-Dagari

Structure 2

1. Exposition: Tell us what you were doing when the event happened, and how you got there. — was driving
2. Inciting Incident: Show us how the conflict or problem started.
3. Rising Action: Show how the crisis developed or worsened.
4. Climax: Describe the most critical moment of the event.
5. Falling Action: Narrate what happened after the climax.
6. Resolution/Reflection: Tell us how the event ended, and reflect on its autobiographical significance. What impact has this event had on you?

9.21 +

Khalifa
Al-Dagga