

Writing Assignment

Executive Office / Congress

The Executive Office: Answer the following questions.

1. Explain the process of the Electoral College. What proposals, if any, do you support for changing the Electoral College? How does the Electoral College help maintain the principle of federalism?
2. Explain why the President has the advantage over Congress in the struggle over control of the nations foreign policy?

Congress: Answer the following questions

1. Explain the conflict between the executive office and congress. Does this conflict still exist today? Give a few examples.
2. Congress created several different types of committees to help regulate and process bills and reports, name several committees and their function.