Once you have completed the Personality Assessment and scored it to find the four letters that describe your personality, you will want to learn more about your findings.

Search your four letters on the Internet to help you better understand who you are and what you like. Did you find out anything new about you? How accurate was this test?

Instructions:

Prepare a short report covering the results describing your personality type.

- What type of personality are you?
- Did this test describe you accurately? Why or why not.
- Did you learn about what career choice suit this personality type?
- Is the career that you have chosen for you "fit in" with this personality type?

You are free to add any additional points.
