

growth in the English language. They provided a great team to learn from and they did not discriminate me at any point basing on how poor I was in expressing myself in English.

Therefore, I owe my success in learning English and developing the writing skill to all my friends, relatives, and teachers.

What do you hope to learn in English 106-I?

How do you hope to improve? What do you want your teacher to teach?