

Medea was cowritten by Chris Durang and Wendy Wasserstein for the Juilliard School's Drama Division's twenty-fifth anniversary, April 25, 1994, at the Juilliard Theater, New York City. The evening was produced by Margot Harley. It was directed by Gerald Gutierrez; the choreography was by Christopher Chadman; and the musical direction was by Tom Fay. The cast for the evening consisted of many Juilliard graduates. For this particular sketch the cast was as follows:

MEDEA	Harriet Harris
THE CHORUS	Laura Linney, Diane Venora, Denise Woods
JASON	Kevin Spacey
MESSENGER	Randle Mell
ANGEL EX MACHINA	David Schramm

CHARACTERS

MEDEA:	an angry woman
THE CHORUS:	the chorus
JASON:	Medea's husband
MESSENGER
ANGEL

5 Page

Play and dialog