

23. Some species have evolved one of the following as a defense against predators :

- a. bright coloration
- b. warning coloration
- c. darkened fur
- d. larger wing surfaces

24. Species symbiotic relationships includes:

- a. bryophytes
- b. stygophytes
- c. parasites
- d. morulas

25. Mutualism is a symbiotic relationship between two species where:

- a. One species is harmed and one is benefitted
- b. One species is benefitted and one is not harmed
- c. Both species are benefitted
- d. Neither species is benefitted

26. Invasive species are a serious threat to an ecosystem since:

- a. they interbreed with native species
- b. they out compete and displace native species
- c. they are non-adaptable
- d. they cause native species to over populate

27. One the greatest impacts of humans on ecosystems:

- a. native evolved species
- b. native adapted species
- c. clonal haplotype species
- d. introduced species