

Dr. Billie Moore: Instructor

- _____ 82. How did President Johnson respond to the riots in the summer of 1967?
- a. He began drafting more black men from those areas for the war.
 - b. He ignored the riots and hoped that they would die down in the future.
 - c. He established a commission to investigate the conflicts and arrive at solutions.
 - d. He declared martial law in large urban areas for the summer and restored the peace.
- _____ 83. Who murdered Martin Luther King, Jr.?
- a. Don L. Lee
 - b. Richard Daly
 - c. Louis Farrakhan
 - d. James Earl Ray
- _____ 84. Why did King begin plans for the Poor People's Campaign in 1967?
- a. After working briefly in Chicago, he realized that racial discrimination and economics were closely linked.
 - b. His advisors notified him that he was losing support among poor people in the cities because he had done little to help their economic situation.
 - c. The Poor People's Campaign was actually a program initiated by Lyndon Johnson.
 - d. King hoped to gain the support of the poor when he ran for president in 1968.
- _____ 85. Who was the "Godfather of Soul"?
- a. Berry Gordy
 - b. Chuck Berry
 - c. Miles Davis
 - d. James Brown
- _____ 86. Who was often considered the most popular black writer of the black arts movement?
- a. Leroy Jones
 - b. Richard Wright
 - c. James Baldwin
 - d. Martin Luther King, Jr.
- _____ 87. Which college created the first black studies department in 1968?
- a. University of California at Berkeley
 - b. San Francisco State College
 - c. Harvard University
 - d. University of Alabama
- _____ 88. Why did jazz become so important to many blacks?
- a. Jazz was very controlled and rhythmic, and stressed classical learning.
 - b. Jazz required greater understanding of art and literature than any other music form.
 - c. Jazz challenged Western views of music and gave blacks self-expression.
 - d. Jazz was invented in Europe.