

Dr. Billie Moore: Instructor

- _____ 51. What statement did Paul Robeson make that infuriated anticommunists in the United States?
- a. Robeson advocated that all blacks move immediately to the Soviet Union.
 - b. Robeson declared that he would not be drafted to fight in the Cold War.
 - c. Robeson could not understand why blacks should fight for a country that denied them civil rights.
 - d. Robeson made public comments stating that he thought HUAC had been infiltrated by communists.
- _____ 52. What did Executive Order 9981 do?
- a. It forbade discrimination by race in defense industries.
 - b. It forbade discrimination by gender in the armed forces.
 - c. It officially desegregated the armed forces.
 - d. It forbade discrimination by race or gender in defense industries.
- _____ 53. What point did W.E.B. Du Bois and Ralph Bunche agree on regarding Africa?
- a. Africa should come under American control for its benefit.
 - b. Blacks should migrate to Africa to gain more civil and political rights.
 - c. African nations should be free from colonial control.
 - d. Africa should serve as a model for race relations in the United States.
- _____ 54. In what area did Du Bois think the NAACP should focus after World War II?
- a. toward economic gains for blacks
 - b. toward winning independence for African nations
 - c. toward desegregating the armed forces
 - d. toward winning rights for black women in the South
- _____ 55. How did the Cold War impact African Americans in world affairs?
- a. It expanded the level of segregation in the United States.
 - b. It expanded the number of race riots taking place in the United States.
 - c. It prevented an expansion of the role of blacks in the international arena.
 - d. It gave new importance to the voices of blacks in the international arena.
- _____ 56. What amendment did the NAACP claim southern states were violating when they lacked black graduate education facilities or refused admittance to blacks?
- a. the First Amendment
 - b. the Tenth Amendment
 - c. the Fourteenth Amendment
 - d. the Twenty-First Amendment