

Problem Seven: Describing Mediation Confidentiality

You are a mediator in a community mediation program in a state in which a recently enacted (and yet-to-be court-interpreted) statute, applicable to all mediations that are not court-ordered, provides in part that

All oral or written communications received or obtained during the course of a mediation shall be confidential. No mediator shall be continues on next page >