Complete the assignment by answering each question in no more than two pages in length per film. Answers need to be complete and comprehensive, demonstrating that you paid attention to the films and thought about what was shown on the screen relative to your topic areas. Be sure that the topic sentence of your first paragraph uses key words from the questions below.

1. State the title of the film and the year it was released. Who produced/directed the film? Briefly describe what the film is about.
2. List at least four scenes in the film that impressed you and explain how each relates to your topic area.
3. What impressed you about this film most? What impressed you about this film least?
3. What is missing in the film relative to your topic area?
4. Describe any aspect of the film that showed you something you had not seen before, something that caused you to think in an alternate way, or helped you understand something more thoroughly now than before. How did it change your thinking in your topic area?
5. Was there anything that you saw or heard in the film that was not convincing or which seemed out of place relative to your topic area?
6. If someone asked you whether you would recommend this film, how would you respond relative to your topic area? Fully explain your reason(s).
