Demon Summoning, a How-to Guide

With just a few easy steps, you too can be summoning demons in no time!

hooly shi—

The first thing you want to do is your research!

This step is very crucial. I cannot stress enough how much research you will need to do before bringing forth a demon, you do not want to summon the wrong demon. Getting the wrong information can be very bad for you. In order to summon a demon, all you really need to do is put out an open invitation. If you have a specific demon in mind, you can perform one or more of several demon summoning spells in order to increase the odds of the process working. When you have the wrong incantation, you may just get possessed instead. We'll get to that later.

This book will be very important on your journey of demon summoning.

I think I would like to know how to prevent that now

Goal to know

It, of course, is not the only book out there, but it is recommended. The Latin in here is phonetic so it is easier to pronounce. Pronunciation is everything.

A few things to keep in mind:

1. Decide if you want a specific demon or if just any will do.
 2. Create a formal invitation for the demon to enter your world, this part is important, study up on your Latin!
 3. Talk to demon as you wish, he or she will understand your native tongue.
 4. End the ceremony by formally ending the invitation.
 5. Close the connection between the worlds.
- Kind of a given, but you do not know how many people have forgotten to close the door to both realms. Any demon could walk in, if the connection does not get closed properly.

Now that you have done your bit of research, and have decided what type of demon you wish to call forth, it is highly recommended that you take the time to refuel yourself. Take a lunch break, nap, hydrate, etc. Summoning demons will be hard work, it will take a lot out of you.

Different steps are required for different demons, these steps are in the book. For now we will look at what it takes to summon a Crossroads Demon.

A crossroads demon is typically summoned by burying a container of ritual items, such as:

- a photograph of the summoner
- graveyard dirt
- a black cat bone
- yarrow (type of flower) at the center of a crossroads

Crossroads Demons tend to have red eyes, so don't be alarmed upon first sight. Deals that are made with humans are sealed with a kiss, and contracts are written invisibly on the skin of the person. The terms of the demonic contracts vary, but the person selling his or her soul is usually given ten years to live after the deal is made.

Thanks for the warning

As mentioned earlier, if any step is not preformed correctly, you might have just been possessed by said demon. If this happens, good luck, you are on your own. You will be in pain, you will be tortured, and most likely rot inside your own body and DIE until the demon decides to move on to a hotter, fresher, younger body.

Let's review:

Do your research, buy or steal a demon summoning book, stay hydrated, obtain ritual items, and don't get possessed. That's about it.

Happy Summoning!
And Good Luck!
