

FULL AND PART (ONE)

FEBRUARY 11 - MARCH 18, 2017

RECEPTION: SAT. FEBRUARY 11, 4-6PM

GALLERY TALK: MONDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 10AM

The Spring semester begins with part one of a two-part exhibition featuring artwork made by full- and part-time faculty in CSUN's Department of Art. Working in three dimensions, the nine artists showcase their most current bodies of work. Using a variety of materials and processes, each artist addresses space differently. Climbing walls, incorporating sound, sitting on the floor, and encouraging participation comprise some of their approaches. Artists include Patsy Cox, Christian Tedeschi, Tanya Batura, Goij DeMarco, Drew Dominic, Thomas Müller, Liz Nurenburg, Kari Reardon, and Rebecca Ripple. The Department of Art at CSUN fosters an inclusive experience, and this exhibition provides an opportunity for the community to engage in contemporary sculpture discourse with work produced by artists who are active in their field.
