

4. Do you see any differences between heterosexual domestic partners and gay domestic partners in terms of the health benefits that should be provided? If so, how would you differentiate the two and why?
5. Are you aware of any companies that provide domestic partner health benefits and, if so, how effective have these programs been in attracting and retaining employees?
6. Is there any relevant research on the topic of domestic benefits and, if so, what does this research show?