

Figure 15.4

Criteria for Evaluating Websites

Authors: What person or organization sponsors the site? What credentials do the authors have?

Objectivity: Does the site give evidence to support its claims? Does it give both sides of controversial issues? Is the tone professional?

Information: How complete is the information? What is it based on?

Currency: How current is the information?

Audience: Who is the intended audience?